The St. Louis Symphony orchestra will play at the Auditorium Wednesday evening, March 2. The orchestra gave a concert in Topeka the early part of the season to an audience that, in point of numbers, reflected most unfavorably on the musical taste of the town. The St. Louis orchestra is an aggregation of artists that the people of Topeka ought to consider it a privilege to hear. The manager of the orchestra is carrying out a plan to give a Beethoven cycle in and around St. Louis with the object of teaching Beethoven to the public, that there may be a greater appreciation of symphonic work in general. The program that has been arranged for Wednesday Reethoven to the public, that there may be a greater appreciation of symphonic work in general. The program that has been arranged for Wednesday evening is selected entirely from the classics, the principal part of which will be Beethoven's Fifth Symphonic, will be Beethoven's Fifth Symphonic, "Leonore" No. 3, "Banse Macabra," by Saint Saens, Wotan's Farewell and Firecharm, from Wagner's "Die Walkure," and Suite No. 1 of Grieg's "Peer Gynt," including "Morning," "Ase's Death," "Anitra's Dance," and "In the Hall of the Mountain King."

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Lazery of Kansas City, Mo., and Mr. Charles Makepeace of Topeka. They will be married in Kansas City the latter part of April and will make their home in Topeka. Mr. Makepeace is employed in the office of the secretary of state.

THIRTY DAY NOTICE OF APPLICATION OF BUSINESS COLLEGES FOR A PERMIT TO CANVASS IN THE STATE OF KANSAS.

Notice is hereby given that the following business colleges (or commercial departments of other schools) have made application to me for a permit to canvass in the State of Kansas for the purpose of selling tuition in advance and contracting or securing notes for tuition from students before their registration at the business colleges (for commercial departments) herein named:

Fredonia Business College, Fredonia, Kansas.

ments) herein named:
Fredonia Business College, Fredonia, Kansas.

If xatisfactory proof is furnished that any of the above named colleges or commercial departments are incompetent to furnish such a course of instruction as they advertise or that the moral surroundings of the institution are not good, or that the premises are kept in an unhealthy condition, or that the agents of said institutions use misrepresentations or fraudulent methods in securing contracts, notes, or cash from prospective students, in such case a permit will not be granted to such business colleges (or commercial departments.)
